

Example Company - Company Overview

Company Activities

Example Company develops software solutions for businesses. Its main activities include backend development, cloud services, data management, cybersecurity and artificial intelligence.

Employees

The company has 120 employees distributed across engineering, operations, sales, finance and management departments.

Headquarters

The company headquarters are located in Algiers.